

Lapu Lapu is the champion of the Philippines

On the morning of 27th April 1521, a terrible battle broke out on the coast of Ma Catan, the Philippine island, ending with the island's victory over the Spanish campaign of Magellan that sought to occupy the Philippines. For forty years, the Spaniards never dared to approach the Philippines again.

At the time, the island leader was a man whose name would be remembered by history.

He is the Muslim Sultan.

Lapu Lapu

The password is "the dignity". While Zola, another Prince of the Philippines, agreed to pay the unfair royalty that Spain tried to impose on the Philippines to preserve his properties.

Lapu Lapu raised the flag of freedom and refused to be a slave in his homeland. He gathered a thousand and five hundred of his compatriots and attacked the ships at dawn on an impossible mission. They were about 30 ships loaded with Spanish soldiers with sophisticated weapons that no one else had at the time. Thanks to the courageous leader Lapu Lapu and his soldiers, the Spanish soldiers were forced to flee and leave the Philippines.

No wonder you see his image today on the Philippine Police logo and the Fire Protection Bureau

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Bureau_of_Fire_Protection#/media/File:Bureau_of_Fire_Protection.png

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Philippine_National_Police

Like all the Muslim leaders, Labu Labu believed in the words of Allah (interpretation of the meaning) : (And We have certainly honored the children of Adam ) Quran [17:70].

And the Almighty said (interpretation of the meaning): (And prepare against them whatever you are able of power and of steeds of war by which you may terrify the enemy of Allah and your enemy and others besides them whom you do not know [but] whom Allah knows. And whatever you spend in the cause of Allah will be fully repaid to you, and you will not be wronged.) Quran (8:60)

It is the jihad in its finest form, and the human dignity in the most beautiful manifestations...

The history of Islam is rich with great leaders from all walks of life, they belong to all the races. They have led their peoples to glorious victories that their grandchildren may not know today, but their source of inspiration remains preserved by Allah.

To know him .. Talk now with one of the specialist preachers directly through our site ---)

